

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE EARLY DECISION PROGRAM AGREEMENT

This agreement is only to be completed by applicants that wish to apply under Brooklyn Law School’s Academic Excellence Early Decision Program.

Brooklyn Law School Academic Excellence Early Decision Program Description

Applicants for whom Brooklyn Law School is their first choice may choose to apply through our binding Academic Excellence Early Decision Program. This is a highly competitive and binding early admissions decision program. Early Decision applicants must complete and submit their applications by December 1, and must take the LSAT exam no later than the November 2021 administration.

Applicants who are granted admission under the Academic Excellence Early Decision Program will be granted our most generous institutionally awarded merit scholarship, the Prince Scholarship, which typically covers 75% of tuition expenses over the course of your law school education, subject to our scholarship renewal policy. In addition, awardees remain eligible for other forms of financial assistance, including additional merit scholarships, need-based grants, outside scholarships, and Brooklyn Law School special donor scholarships. The Prince Scholarship honors Jerome Prince, Brooklyn Law School’s longtime Dean and Professor of Law. Dean Prince’s dedicated service to Brooklyn Law School and the legal community—as teacher, scholar, administrator and public servant—spanned over fifty fruitful years.

The Admissions Committee may choose to hold some files of applicants to the Academic Excellence Early Decision Program for a decision in the Regular Admission process. Applicants who are not offered admission through the Academic Excellence Early Decision Program are released from their commitment to attend Brooklyn Law School if admitted and are at no disadvantage in the regular admissions cycle.

Candidates under the Academic Excellence Early Decision Program at Brooklyn Law School may apply to other law schools but may not apply to any other binding early decision programs. Candidates agree to withdraw all pending applications to other law schools within five days of receiving notice of admission at Brooklyn Law School, and will not initiate additional applications to other law schools.

I AM CERTAIN THAT BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL IS MY FIRST CHOICE SCHOOL, AND I WISH TO BE CONSIDERED AS A CANDIDATE FOR EARLY DECISION.

I have read the above description of Brooklyn Law School’s Academic Excellence Early Decision Program and understand the terms and conditions set forth in it. Accordingly, I understand that I am not allowed to apply as an Early Decision candidate to any other law school during the current application cycle. Moreover, if accepted, I agree to: (1) matriculate at Brooklyn Law School; (2) immediately withdraw any admission applications I may have pending at other law schools; and (3) refrain from initiating any new law school applications after my acceptance to Brooklyn Law School.
